Giuseppe Verdi: Messa da Requiem “An opera in ecclesiastical robes”

Verdi brings his genius as composer of the world's most famous operas to this setting of the Latin funeral mass – Verdi's mighty Requiem. Experience the astounding power of the Dies Irae – instantly recognisable – and the heart-wrenching tender pleading for forgiveness by a single beautiful soprano voice in the final Libera Me.

The Royal Tunbridge Wells Choral Society return to the Assembly Hall for the first concert of their 117th season. They are joined by the RTWCS Orchestra and four experienced soloists under the expert baton of musical director, Robyn Sevastos.

Tickets: £10, £15, £18, £22
Children (full time education): half price

Tickets are available from choir members, from The Gateway, or from the Assembly Hall Theatre box office on 01892 530613 or www.assemblyhalltheatre.co.uk (booking fee may apply).
